count as service, the emoluments which he/she drew immediately before such absence from duty or being placed under suspension, will reckon for pensionary benefits.

For calculating the total embodied service, the breaks in embodied service due to disembodiment will be treated as condoned but the period of breaks itself will not be treated as qualifying service for pension. Where qualifying embodied service has been rendered in broken spells, five per cent cut will be imposed on the pension of those JCOs/OR who have completed 15 years or more of aggregate embodied service, but have not completed 20 years of aggregate embodied service.

(3) Full pre-commissioned service rendered under the Central Government whether in a civil department or in the Armed Forces, will be taken into account for working out the qualifying service for earning pensionary benefits subject to fulfillment of other conditions. This will also be counted for determining the minimum qualifying service.

(4) In calculating the length of qualifying service, fraction of a year equal to three months and above but less than 6 months will be treated as a completed one half year and reckoned as qualifying service., This will, however, not be applicable for computing minimum qualifying service for pension.

(5) All leave including study leave will count as qualifying service for pension provided that service for at least a period specified by the Government has been rendered from the date of return from the study leave last availed of.
